

Academic Resources for ELL Families

- Collegeboard is a site where one can register for the SAT, SAT Subject tests, and SAT readiness tools. The College Board also offers student search services, college planning, help with the college search, CSS/Financial AID PROFILE help and offers a scholarship search tool.

 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) may be taken by some colleges in lieu of the SATS for ELLs. www.ets.org/toefl
- The Massachusetts Educational Financing Authority (MEFA) is one of the only sources of low-cost, fixed interest rate loans that feature consistent monthly payments, with immediate, deferred or interest-only repayment options. MEFA offers advice for people planning and/or saving for college. One can discuss their plans free with a MEFA counselor.
